VACI2019 - Thank You For Being Part of Our Best VACI To Date!

The Vietnam International Water Week-VACI2019, held on 22-25 March 2019, bringing series of some 100 exciting sessions/activities including hot issues workshops, panel discussions, forum, exhibitions, business meetings, training courses, field trips with the central theme “Water Smarter: Leaving No one behind”. It saw US$ 300 million in total value for the announcements on planned water projects, tenders, investment and MOUs. The week attracted nearly a thousand of leaders, keynote speakers, participants and visitors from 30 countries spanning the government, development organizations, academics, companies, and media for discussion, exchange and networking. This provided an opportunity for decision makers, donors, engineers, scientists, practitioner, educators, students, and other interested individuals to meet, exchange ideas, and co-create Smarter Water Solutions for the goal No. 6- water for all of the 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda.

Here's a glimpse into the happenings over the span of VACI2019:
